

CAREER INFORMATION:

Here are some links to help you in finding internships/jobs once you are finished with your degree:

<http://publicservice.monster.com/articles/conservation/> This is a link from Monster.Com relating to how to find jobs in the Conservation field;

<http://ecojobs.com/>

<http://www.environmentalcareer.com/>

<http://usajobs.opm.gov/> This has links for all sorts of career through the Federal Government...Bio and Biomed alike.

<http://www.epa.gov/careers/> A link to the Environmental Protection Agency's Career website

<http://thesca.org/> Student Conservation Association...lots of post-Baccalaureate opportunities for students.

<http://www.esa.org/opportunities/> A link to the career page for the Ecological Society of America

You can always also try Monster.Com or CareerBuilder.Com at the following links:

<http://www.monster.com/>

<http://www.careerbuildercollege.com/>

<http://publicservice.monster.com/articles/2006tips/> ; This is another link from Monster.Com on Hot Federal Jobs for 2006.

<http://publicservice.monster.com/articles/teaching/> ; A link for those who are planning on teaching and how the federal government can best utilize people with the teaching background.