Real People, Real Life in the Residence Halls

Living on campus provides a lot of perks – convenience, safety, no monthly bills, a few extra minutes of sleep before walking to class, etc. The real benefit, though, is the people around you. Where else can you live with so many people, meet life-long friends, create memories, and always have someone around to hang out with day or night? The residence halls offer a special environment, and now's your chance to sign up for another year. Housing sign up is underway. For more information or to sign up, visit www.reslife.wmich.edu.
