
WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

College of Health and Human Services Bronson School of Nursing

Teaching Graduate Assistantship Opportunity

The WMU Bronson School of Nursing is seeking a Teaching Graduate Assistant to assist faculty with undergraduate Nursing lab and classroom instruction. This position will report to the Director, and will also work closely and collaboratively with faculty in the school.

Position: Teaching Graduate Assistant
Start Date: August 25, 2008
End Date: April 28, 2009
Terms: Fall 2008 and Spring 2009
Pay and Hours:

	Fall 2008	Spring 2009
Hours of work per week:	10 hours	10 hours
Pay (Stipend):	$2,665.62	$2,665.62
Tuition Assistance to student account:	2.5 credit hours: $861.88 (resident) $1,825.45 (non-resident)	2.5 credit hours: $861.88 (resident) $1,825.45 (non-resident)

*Stipend and tuition assistance will vary from stated amounts for doctoral students.

Qualifications

- Must be enrolled in graduate level or graduate program required courses for at least 6 credit hours per semester.
- Clinical experience in a laboratory or agency setting.
- Ability to work independently with attention to detail.
- Skills in word processing, creating and using databases, working knowledge of PowerPoint and proficient on the internet.
- Ability to conduct library searches
- Ability to meet deadlines.
- Ability to work cooperatively and collaboratively with faculty and other team members.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality.

To apply

Please submit the following via email to Dr. Joyce E. Thompson, Interim Director, WMU Bronson School of Nursing (joyce.thompson@wmich.edu):

- Resume
- Letter of interest that highlights how you meet the stated qualifications
- Three references, including daytime phone numbers and email addresses

Western Michigan University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer consistent with applicable federal and state law.
All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply.