Flexible Spending Accounts (Optional)

Health Care Flexible Spending Account	Can be used to pay for medical expenses not covered by health insurance, such as (but not limited to) deductibles, prescription co-pays, office visits, dental and orthodontic procedures, and laser eye surgery.
Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account	Can be used to pay for eligible dependent care expenses, such as for the care of a child under the age of 13, or a disabled spouse, parent, or older child.

1. Employees may participate in either or both of the above plans.
2. Funds used to pay for qualified expenses are not taxed. You save FICA, federal, and state income taxes on these expenses.
3. A pre-determined amount of money is deducted from your gross pay (before taxes) and set aside to reimburse you for incurred expenses.
4. According to IRS provisions, funds left in the account at year-end are not refundable to the employee.

Retirement Contributions to FICA and TIAA-CREF

Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA)	Amount of employer (WMU) contributions determined by federal legislation.
Teachers Insurance Annuity Association/College Retirement Equities Fund (TIAA-CREF)	11% of total gross earnings is contributed by WMU to the participating employee's retirement account.

1. Faculty members have immediate vesting rights in the TIAA-CREF plan.
2. Under the current AAUP contract, eligible University retirees may continue to receive health insurance for themselves and their eligible dependents. Please refer to the AAUP contract for more details on these and other retirement benefits.

Tax-Deferred Savings Plan (Optional)

1. You may contribute to these optional 403(b) and 457(b) tax-deferred savings plans through payroll deduction.
2. Funds are deducted from gross pay (before taxes), accumulate tax-free, and are not taxed until received as income after retirement.
3. Several investment options are available.
4. Contact Sledrunner Financial Services (269) 552-9233 for information, to enroll, or for investment counseling.
