

How Do I Find a Journal, Magazine, or Newspaper by Title?

Also see Get Full Text for specific articles found in a database.

If you need to:

- 1) find a journal containing an article you have identified
- 2) browse a journal

go directly to the “Journals” tab on the library home page:

Examples of possible full text options that may appear:

The screenshot shows the University Libraries search interface. At the top left is the 'W' logo and 'University Libraries'. At the top right is a 'Get Help' link. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Find it WMU'. The search results for 'Journal of Adolescence [0140-1971]' are displayed. On the right side, there is a 'Journal at a glance' section with three checkmarks: 'Peer-Reviewed', 'Journal -- Academic/Scholarly', and 'Published 6 times a year'. A link for '...more details' is at the bottom right of this section.

This section shows two main options for accessing the journal. The first is 'Find Full-Text Online:', which includes two links: 'Get full text (Elsevier SD Freedom Collection)' available from v.16: no.1(1993) onwards, and 'Get full text (OCLC FirstSearch ECO)' available from v.19: no.1(1996) to v.25: no.8(2002). The second option is 'Search the Library Catalog:', which includes a link 'Find a Print Copy in the Library' with details: 'Waldo Library, General Stacks, non-circulating', call number 'RJ499.A1 J574', and volume information 'v.19-20,22-27 (1997-2004)'. A horizontal line separates this section from the one below.
