Postmark No Later Than Friday 7 March

While there is a nominal participation fee for each all-star band and repertory band member ($10 payable the morning of the conference), all other interested high school band members and directors may attend the day-long conference free of charge. We do ask, however, that an approximate number of students on each instrument be registered so we can be prepared. Also, additional conference information is mailed to each director who returns this form. Please return this form even if you are registering only those nominated for the all-star band.
