*Methods Elective I: Choose from MUS 3360, 3400, 3450 or 3470

All music majors fulfill the Baccalaureate-level writing requirement by taking MUS 3520 NonWestern Music. This class should be taken in fall or spring of the junior or senior year as a General Education elective. Beginning with the Fall semester of 2005, all College of Fine Arts students must fulfill the Computer Literacy requirement with MUS 1140 Digital Media in the Arts.

Prior to the Fall semester of the Third Year (or before beginning music education methods courses or 3000-level courses in the College of Education), students need to have completed the following:

_____ Completed 35 hours or coursework

_____ Have an overall GPA of 2.5

_____ Completed all Intellectual Skills requirements (if needed - ENGL 1000, MATH 1090, ED 1040)

_____ Completed Proficiency I College-Level Writing course

_____ Completed ED 2500 Human Development with a "C" or better

_____ Passed the Basic Skills Test (information is available at www.mttc.nesinc.com – test is given in October, January, April and July – register well in advance).

_____ When all of the above are completed, submit an application to the College of Education Advising Office – 2504 Sangren Hall. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, but should be submitted prior to the fall semester when you wish to begin methods.

_____ Completed the music core in theory/history/aural comprehension and conducting; all must be completed with a "C" or better, and you must have at least a 2.5 GPA in theory/aural comprehension/history classes:

Basic Music 1600, 1610, 2600, 2610

Aural Comprehension 1620, 1630, 2590, 2650

Music History 1700, 2700, 2710

Conducting 2150

_____ Have no grade of less than "C" in Applied Music and successfully completed the Sophomore Hearing

_____ Submit an application to the music education area by January 15th (prior to the fall semester when you wish to begin methods – applications are available in the Music Advising Office)

Check your music student handbook for further details. Questions or concerns can be directed to the undergraduate music advisor or the coordinator of music education.
