

QI LI

2724, West brook,
Kalamazoo, MI 49006
(269)-352-4059

SUMMARY

- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills
- Knowledge of chemical, paper and printing techniques
- Strong ability to work in teams and collaborations
- Extensive experience with public speaking, including voice and dialogue training

EDUCATION AND AWARDS

Master Degree in Western Michigan University, Department of Paper Engineering, Chemical Engineering and Imaging, Master of Science in Paper and Imaging Science and Engineering

September 2007 - present

Bachelor Degree in Beijing Institute of Technology, Department of Chemistry and Environment

July 2007

- BIT scholarship 2003,2004,2006

EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant WMU, Department of PCI

Fall 2008- now

Work for the National Council of Air and Stream Institute.

Engineering Trip to China and Korea

May 2008

Teaching Assistant WMU, Department of PCI

January 2008-Fall 2008

Instructed the experiment of the senior students in course Separation Processes

Editor of the Magazine of Student Union of Technology and Science in BIT

November 2006-June 2007

One of the presidents of the Student Union of Technology and Science in BIT

October 2006-June 2007

Assistant of ELIC-English Language Institute/China, Beijing

August 2006-September 2006

Volunteer of student Guide to help some foreigners visiting China

August 2006

Organizer and President of the News for Students Sports Show in BIT

May 2005

The president of Student union of Literature in BIT

September 2004-March 2005

Editor of the Magazine Life in the university

January 2005