

Georgia Metcalfe Memorial Lecture
1954-2007

The Georgia Metcalfe Memorial Lectures' aim is to advance, among occupational therapist in mental health, the prevention of mental and emotional disorders, the proper treatment according to best evidence of those with such disorders, and promotion of mental health. The Barbara A. Rider Colloquium will continue to support mental health issues by including a panelist or lecturer with expertise in applied best practice psycho social evidence.