Western Michigan University
School of Music

4-Summer Cycle of Courses

The cycle of courses for the Summer Master of Music in Music Education program is structured so that all the coursework, minus the culminating project, can be completed in four consecutive summers. However, coursework can be completed in fewer, or greater amounts of time depending on student preferences. The cycle for the schedule of courses is as follows:

Summer #1 (2014, 2018)
- MUS 6110—Intro/Music Research (3 cr.)
- MUS 6700/6790—Music History (3 cr.)
- MUS 5950—Workshops in Music Ed (2 cr.)

Summer #2 (2015, 2019)
- MUS 6500—Seminar/Music Education (2 cr.)
- MUS 6420—Philosophy/Music Education (2 cr.)
- MUS 5650/6740—Music Theory (3 cr.)
- MUS 5950—Workshops in Music Ed (2 cr.)

Summer #3 (2016, 2020)
- MUS 6110—Intro/Music Research (3 cr.)
- MUS 6700/6790—Music History (3 cr.)
- MUS 5950—Workshops in Music Ed (2 cr.)

Summer #4 (2017, 2021)
- MUS 6500—Seminar/Music Education (2 cr.)
- MUS 6420—Philosophy/Music Education (2 cr.)
- MUS 5650/6740—Music Theory (3 cr.)
- MUS 5950—Workshops in Music Ed (2 cr.)