International Education Week 2016
November 14-18, 2016.

"In the 21st century, a quality education is an international education."
- U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan

Saturday, Nov. 12

The Japan Festival
4 p.m. to 7 p.m., New Wesley Foundation
Japanese Festival is not just a celebration for the Japanese students but for the whole community to participate in! This year the theme will be “Matsuri” which is a custom that is held in each town in Japan. The festival will have traditional Japanese dishes, face painting, taiko drummers, martial art demonstrations, dancing and more! Hosted by: The WMU Japan Club

The Dominican Festival
7 p.m., Trimpe Building
Come experience Dominican culture through food and music. It will be as if the Caribbean had moved to WMU for a couple hours. Hosted by: Dominican Students Association

Sunday, Nov. 13

Indonesian and Malaysian Night
5 to 8 p.m., Student Recreation Center
Malaysian & Indonesian Night 2016 offers a great experience for guests to witness the combined Malay and Indonesia traditional wedding from food, environment, and an array of dances that combines traditional and contemporary Malaysian and Indonesian cultures. Hosted by: Indonesian and Malaysian Student Association

Monday, Nov. 14

WMU Study Abroad Information Table
November 14th to 18th
10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Brown Hall
Stop by to chat with study abroad alumni about the opportunities available for you here at WMU! Hosted by: WMU Study Abroad

The Refugee Dialogues
6 to 7:30 p.m., The Global Lounge- Bernhard Center
Putting a face to the ongoing refugee crisis, refugees will recount experiences from their home land and about their journey to the United States. Also present will be live music and food Hosted by: Refugee Outreach Kalamazoo at WMU

Wednesday, Nov. 16

Chinese Paper-cutting workshop
1 to 2:30 p.m., Brown Hall 4025
Create your own Chinese paper-cutting work of art! Immerse yourself in some unique Chinese culture with a Chinese paper-cutting workshop. Paper-cutting is a Chinese traditional art and is popular in many of the festivals held across China. Hosted by: Confucius Institute at WMU

Thursday, Nov. 17

American Thanksgiving Celebration
12 to 2 p.m., Kanley Chapel
The American Thanksgiving Adventure will provide an overview of the history of the American Thanksgiving Day from its origins in England to its present day observance. Students will receive a somewhat typical Thanksgiving Day dinner. Hosted by: International Student Fellowship

Jeopardy with BASA
8:30 p.m., Bernhard Center Room 107
We will be playing jeopardy to expand the knowledge of Africa as a continent. The use of music and food will allow us to showcase our culture to those who don’t know about the diversify that exists with Africa as a continent not a country. Hosted by: Bronco African Students Association (BASA)

Friday, Nov. 18

Chinese movie workshop
2:30 to 4:40 p.m., Brown Hall 2037
Enjoy Chinese culture, history and a fascinating matrial art display with one of the most influential Chinese films in the United States; Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon. Hosted by: Confucius Institute at WMU

China Day
6 to 8 p.m., New Wesley Foundation
CASS will have Chinese food and Chinese traditional clothes and Chinese movies. Hosted by: Chinese Association for Students and Scholars (CASS)

Wednesday, Nov. 23

Legally Desi 2016
6 to 9 p.m., New Wesley Foundation
"Legally desi 2016" cultural event by Indian students association focused on indian cultures and traditions, come join us for Indian dance and Music followed by traditional Indian dinner. Hosted by: Indian Student Association