Term Faculty Specialist I/II – Clinical Specialist
WMU Bronson School of Nursing

The WMU Bronson School of Nursing seeks Candidates for a full-time, academic year, term Faculty Specialist I/II – Clinical Specialist position.

Qualifications: Master’s degree in nursing; specialization in medical surgical or psychiatric nursing; registered nurse license with eligibility for Michigan license; community-based, interdisciplinary, inter-institutional experience/background; teaching experience in a nursing baccalaureate program in clinical areas and classroom preferred; evidence of technological literacy and on-line instruction preferred.

Responsibilities: Supervise and instruct professional nursing students to work with clinical health problems and with health and wellness promotion with individuals, groups and communities in clinical and classroom settings in undergraduate and/or graduate programs; contribute to the missions of the school, college and university; service to the department, the college, the university, the profession, and the community; and contribute to an interdisciplinary environment of research, instruction, and community collaborations.

The University: Western Michigan University, a learner centered, discovery driven and globally engaged public research university with more than 25,000 students from 100 nations around the globe. WMU has been designated by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as one of just 200 public institutions in the nation with high or very high research activity.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience, with an excellent benefits package.

Expected Start Date: August 17, 2015.

Application Deadline: Applications accepted until position is filled.

Please visit www.wmich.edu/hr/jobs (posting number 0603056) for detailed information and application procedures.

Western Michigan University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer consistent with applicable federal and state law. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply.