The WMU Bronson School of Nursing seeks Candidates for a full-time, fiscal year, tenure track Faculty Specialist I/II – Clinical Specialist position.

Qualifications: Master’s degree in nursing; specialization in gerontology, community health and adult health nursing; Registered Nurse License with eligibility for Michigan License; community-based, interdisciplinary, inter-institutional experience/background; teaching experience in a baccalaureate program in practice and laboratory setting preferred; evidence of technological literacy and on-line instruction preferred.

Responsibilities: Teaching courses in the Nursing curriculum in online, hybrid and traditional formats; supervise and instruct professional nursing students to work with clinical health problems and with health and wellness promotion with individuals, groups and communities in clinical and classroom settings in undergraduate programs; contribute to the missions of the School, College and University; may provide coordination of regional location RN to BSN programs; program development activities, including EUP offerings online and at regional locations; service to the Department, the University, the profession, and the community; contribute to an interdisciplinary environment of research, instruction, and community collaborations; other tasks as assigned by the Director of the WMU Bronson School of Nursing.

The University: Western Michigan University, a learner centered, discovery driven and globally engaged public research university, enrolls more than 23,000 students from 100 nations around the globe. WMU has been designated by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as one of just 147 public institutions in the nation with high or very high research activity.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience, with an excellent benefits package.
Expected Start Date: July 1, 2016. Application Deadline: Applications accepted until position is filled.

Please visit www.wmich.edu/hr/jobs (posting number 0603293) for detailed information and application procedures.

WMU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Minorities, women, veterans, individuals with disabilities and all other qualified individuals are encouraged to apply.