Tenure Track Faculty Position
Anatomy or Physiology

The Department of Biological Sciences at Western Michigan University seeks applications for a position at the Assistant Professor level beginning in Fall 2015, pending budgetary approval. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate courses in anatomy or physiology and graduate level courses in their area of expertise, establish an extramurally funded research program, participate in the training of Master’s and Ph.D. students and serve on departmental and University committees. Preference will be given to applicants whose research complements existing strengths within the department with demonstrated commitment to support the success of students from underrepresented groups. A Ph.D. and relevant post-doctoral experience are required. Competitive salary and startup funding will be offered. Information concerning the Biological Sciences Department’s programs and faculty can be obtained at www.wmich.edu/biology/.

Western Michigan University is a learner centered, discovery driven and globally engaged university with high research activity, provides Master’s and Ph.D. degrees, and offers a unique opportunity for individuals seeking a balanced research and teaching career. Applicants have to apply at http://www.wmich.edu/hr/jobs. Please have three letters of reference sent to Cindy Linn, Ph.D. (cindy.linn@wmich.edu), Anatomy / Physiology Search Committee, Department of Biological Sciences, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5410. Review of applications will begin on Feb. 1, 2015, but will be considered until position is filled. WMU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Minorities, women, veterans, individuals with disabilities and all other qualified individuals are encouraged to apply.