The Michigan Environmental Laboratory Association (MELA) awards one or more $1000 scholarships each year to students interested in environmental chemistry and the related sciences. Bryce McHale was a dedicated MELA member and well respected environmental chemist and the scholarship is awarded in his memory.

- CRITERIA FOR SELECTION
  - Full time student (12 credit hours)
  - At WMU College of Arts and Sciences
  - Environmental, Chemistry, Geo Chemistry Focus
  - Sophomore or Junior level undergraduate
  - Preferred
    - Experience or Interest in the Environmental Sciences
    - Experience with Chemistry Principals

- SUBMISSION
  - Copy of WMU Transcript
  - Essay/Biographical Sketch (800 word maximum)
  - At least one, but no more than three letters of Reference
  - Application Deadline – January 31st 2015
  - See Tom Howe for details or www.michlabs.org