After consulting the major advisor, students will be advised to select three elective courses based on their individual interest, specific need, or career planning.

The sequences of the courses in this flowchart are either mandatory or highly recommended.