

CRICPE & BRONCOS FIRST SEMINAR SERIES

Thursday, October 15
2 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.
2110 Sangren Hall

W CRICPE
Center for Research on Instructional
Change in Postsecondary Education
WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

SUPPORTING THE SUCCESS OF ALL STUDENTS:

Students with Disabilities at Four-Year Institutions, a National Overview

PRESENTER:

Margaret Partlo is a post-doctoral Research Associate for the Broncos FIRST program in the Center for Research on Instructional Change in Postsecondary Education (CRICPE) at Western Michigan University. Her research centers on the factors influencing student persistence and success in higher education.

UPCOMING PRESENTATION:

Next Date: Thursday, November 5th 2-3:30pm

Next Topic: Missed Connections: A Case Study of the Social Networks of Physics Graduate Students

Presenter: Alexis V. Knaub, Ed.D, Post-Doctoral Research Associate, CRICPE

Location: 2110 Sangren Hall