

Ernst Breisach

Faculty Research Colloquium

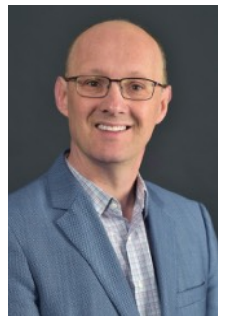

Spring Semester 2017

Please join us for three thought-provoking presentations this spring. All events will take place from noon-1:30 in the International Conference Room (2302 Friedman Hall). The standard format is a 30-45 minute presentation followed by questions and discussion. The Department of History will provide pizza and soft drinks.

February 20: Anise K. Strong, Department of History, “Mistresses, Slaves, and Roman Religious Rituals.”

March 20: Nicholas Witschi, Department of English, “I do not like newspaper notoriety’: Autobiography and the Making of the Gunslinger Western.”

April 17: Marion (Buddy) Gray, Department of History, “Recycling in Early Modern Europe: Paper Manufacture in Brandenburg.”
