

WMU Global Hubs: Portugal

WMU Essential Studies

This faculty-led program offers students the opportunity to earn Western Essential Studies (WES) credits via study abroad in the summer. All courses offered are taught by WMU professors.

Summer 2024: Students will automatically receive a $3,000 WMU Global Hub scholarship when participating in this program.

Students will select 2 WES courses, 1 from Track A & 1 from Track B

Course Title:	Course Code:	WES Area:	TRACK:
Sport in American Culture	HIST 2125	Level 2: Societies & Cultures	A
Theatre in Society	THEA 1000	Level 1: Inquiry & Engagement	A
Exploring Leadership in a Changing World	EDLD 2000	Level 1: Oral & Digital Communication	A
Introduction to the Environment & Culture: Environment & Cultural Studies in Lisbon, Portugal	GIST 3100	Level 2: Societies & Cultures	A
Principles of Macroeconomics	ECON 2020	Level 1: Quantitative Literacy	B
Comparative Approaches to Forms of Black Consciousness	AAAS 2100	Level 1: Inquiry & Engagement	B
Culture, Social Problems, & Social Change: A Study in Lisbon	SOC 2100	Level 2: Societies & Cultures	B
Health Care Ethics	NUR 3220	Level 3: Global Perspectives	B

Summer II 2024
(1-month long in July)

Questions? Contact
Study Abroad Specialist:
Rachel Konecny
rachel.konecny@wmich.edu