Points of Pride

✓ Selected by the Sales Education Foundation as being in the top sales programs in the nation, the college’s sales and business marketing program has earned this designation eight times. Educational-Portal.com ranks the program #2 in the country. In addition, a team of WMU students won first place in the Russ Berrie National Sales Challenge, and senior Brian Curlett was named overall individual champion at the event.

✓ The Haworth College of Business was named a top school at which to earn an MBA by The Princeton Review in 2013. The editors note, “Word of mouth plays a big part in many students’ decisions to attend Western Michigan University with great recommendations from family and friends. One student was even referred to the school by a CEO.”

✓ A full range of student consulting in marketing is now available for clients in the business community.

✓ A center for integrated supply management has been launched, which will enhance delivery of leading-edge instruction. In conjunction with the center, a new initiative—Bronco Force—will offer corporate clients consulting in supply chain.

✓ A university-wide business pitch competition that tests students’ business plans and pitching skills was launched in spring 2013.

✓ A new concentration is available in the MBA program—health administration.

✓ A communication center focused on refining the communication skills of all business students opened in fall of 2012.

✓ A business accelerator, WMU Starting Gate, where students can access resources to develop and grow their own businesses, was launched in fall 2013.

✓ The Greenleaf Trust Trading Room, a state-of-the-art trading lab, will give students valuable hands-on learning experience in financial trading and the study of market trends. The trading room is scheduled to open in 2014.
