ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE
wmich.edu/celcis

The Center for English Language and Culture for International Students (CELCIS) offers intensive English language courses at Western Michigan University.

BENEFITS OF STUDYING ENGLISH AT CELCIS (ESTABLISHED IN 1975):
- CELCIS is one of the first programs in the world to receive CEA accreditation three times.
- Students who complete CELCIS are not required to submit a TOEFL or IELTS score for admission.
- 70% of CELCIS graduates go on to study in WMU undergraduate or graduate programs.
- CELCIS scholarship opportunities are available.
- Learn valuable presentation, research, and study skills to help you succeed in the university.
