

Megan Mullins

Hope College

Research Director: Carl Frost Center for Social Science
Assistant Professor

Education:

Ph.D. Western Michigan University 2004.

- Major: Sociology
- Concentrations: Cultural Theory and Research Methods

Research Consultancies:

Kalamazoo Community Foundation
“An Evaluation of Social Capital in ‘Better Together Kalamazoo’ Program Outcomes,”
Kalamazoo, MI, 2002-Present

Kalamazoo Community Foundation
“Understanding Social Capital in Kalamazoo: the 2006 Survey Report,”
Kalamazoo, MI, 2002-Present

Major Publications:

- Rhineberger, G. and Mullins, M. (Forthcoming in May, 2008). “Exploring Academic Discourse on Ethics: Where Are We?” Journal of Crime and Justice.
- Mullins, M. and G. Rhineberger. (2007). “To Teach or Not to Teach: Requiring Undergraduate and Graduate-level Criminal Justice Ethics Courses in Higher Education. Submitted to Journal of Criminal Justice Education.
- Snyder, Z., Carlo, T. and Mullins, M. (2001). “Parenting From Prison: An Examination of a Children’s Visitation Program at a Women’s Correctional Facility,” Marriage and Family Review, vol. 32, no. 3/4.