Go West.
A new life is out there.

1. VISIT. Special transfer sessions are offered Friday and Saturday at 10 a.m.
2. APPLY. Submit admission application. (See instructions for deadlines. Some programs have special deadlines.)
3. SEND TRANSCRIPTS. Request that official transcripts from every college you've attended be sent to the Office of Admissions.
4. DETAILS. Some academic programs have an additional admission process. Check the website to ensure that you meet all deadlines.
5. FINANCIAL AID. Complete the federal financial aid application (FAFSA) as soon as possible after January 1.
6. ACCEPTED. Receive letter of admission. "Transfer Notes," credit evaluation and Bronco NetID. Pay admissions deposit to hold your place in entering class (fall only).
7. ADVISING. Make an appointment with a WMU academic advisor soon after acceptance to prepare for class registration.
8. REGISTER FOR CLASSES. • Access GoWMU to register online for classes. • Tuition is due one week prior to the first day of the semester.
9. HOUSING. Submit your residence hall or apartment contract promptly.
10. ORIENTATION. Register to attend a Transfer Transition Program and utilize our online orientation modules in GoWMU.
11. BRONCO CARD. Once registered for classes, you can visit the Card Center to get your picture taken and receive your Bronco Card.
12. SEND FINAL TRANSCRIPTS. Request a final transcript to be sent from your college upon completion of your course work. This will affect your ability to register for future terms and may also affect your financial aid.
