Institute for Intercultural and Anthropological Studies

OPEN HOUSE
Thursday, October 25
Noon to 2 p.m.
1071 Moore Hall

Food and refreshments provided.

Join our faculty and staff members to celebrate the opening of the newly created institute that is currently housing African American and African Studies (major and minor) and Anthropology (major and minor). The institute hopes to offer other intercultural programs in the future such as Latino/a and Latin Studies, Native American and Indigenous Peoples Studies or those fostering interest by the WMU community.
