WMU Graduate Humanities Essay Contest

Theme: Open

Deadline: April 1, 2024

Call for Papers

The Western Michigan University Center for the Humanities invites submissions to the WMU Graduate Humanities Essay Contest (Deadline for submissions: April 1, 2024). We invite essays from all graduate students at WMU. We will consider any submissions related to the humanities.

Eligibility: The contest is open to currently enrolled graduate students at WMU. Previously published essays or essays already accepted for publication elsewhere are not eligible for the contest.

For guidelines and to submit your essay visit: <http://www.wmich.edu/humanities/students>

Contest essays must be submitted by April 1, 2024.

The faculty serving as respondents will select two outstanding submissions: first place prize will be $1000, and the runner-up prize will be $600 (in the form of financial aid). Winning essays will be eligible for publication in the Hilltop Review. Prizes and publication subject to fund availability and Hilltop Review discretion.
